About Me.

I love weddings, and I love magic, which means I really love my job, however most of all I love being able to help and make so many couples have the day of their lives.

I have been a professional magician for over 35 years and in that time have performed around the world for every kind of event and function, on land, on sea and even in the air and of all the shows I perform none bring me more joy than a wedding, it is the perfect place to have me to entertain.

I have also had a few big names in front of me, from movie stars to members of the Royal Family, from celebrity chefs to top class footballers.
